A very pleasing and interesting feature of the High School at Hardinsburg is its Literary and Debating Society. We had the pleasure of attending one of its meet ings last week, and were highly entertained with the exercises of the evening. The pupils of the school took a lively interest in the debate, and the discussions were intelligent, thoughtful and to the point.

Rathbone visited the papils while here, in company with Judge Marray, the local agent, and was highly pleased with our country and people. We may expect country and people. We may expect other young men to arrive soop, as our farmers are making applications for them quite freely. It is an admirable scheme, as all these young men have more or less means, and come among us with a view of buying lands and becoming citizens, after a tutelage of a year or more on our farms. Just as we were preparing our forms for the press intelligence reached us of a serious cutting scrape and probable mur-der, that occurred in this county Sunday night, at the boarding-house of a man named King, about three miles from Bennettsville. The meagre particulars of the affair they reached us are as follows:

It appears that several young men engaged in getting out staves, and boarding at King's, were under the influence of liquor, when a difficulty arose between Jo Book Patterson, of Grayson county, and another young man named Best, from Ha din county, which resulted in Patterson resorting to his knife and inflicting several serious cuts and stabs on the person of his antagoni-t, one of which penetrated to the hollow. Dr. Howard was summoned to the wounded man's assistance, but had not return d when our informant passed his house Monday morning. Our latest information is to the effect that, yesterday

Goshen S. S. Convention.

Editor Breckenridge News: The representatives of quite a number of Baptist churches in Grayson and Breckenridge counties, met at Goshen church, this county, on the 9th and 10th instant, and organized a Sunday School Convention. Rev. Dr. Helm was elected president, and Rev. R. C. Kimble secre-

The object of the convention is to promote and encourage Sunday Schools in these two counties, and co operate with the State Baptist Sunday School Convention.

Notwithstanding the rain and mad the attendance was large and enthusiastic.

Such a convention was new to those of us in this portion of the state, who never at-tended one before; yet the subjects selected for discussion were to the point, and, considering the fact that no time was given for preparation, the speakers all acquitted themselves with great credit.

The convent on adjou ned to meet with Claves Creak B. adjourned to meet with Clover Creek Baptist church on Friday before the fifth Sunday in March. It is the purpose of the convention to continue their work until every Baptist charch in the two counties maintains a good Sabbath School. This does not mean excluit eness School. This does not mean excluit eness nor sectoriauism, but to do our work as Baptists, and provoke other denominations to love and good works in this great cause until the thousands of children now apending the Lord's Day in pleasure or vice, and ignorance of religious instruction, be brought into good Sunday Schools.

Rev. W. P. Harvey, the general secretary of our State Sunday School Convention, was present and electrified the people with his stirring, eloquent speeches, and after preaching Sunday raised $200 in aid of his good work.

Mr. Editor, you are cheerfully lending the influence of your able and excellent paper to the cause of virtue, education and morality. I feel the more freedom in sending this notice for your columns. Now, in advance, I take the liberty to invite you to be present at our convention in March. You will be welcome to the convention and to the hospitality of the people in that section of the county.

THE COURT OF CLAIMS.

The Story of a Week's Seige of the County Trensure-Box.

The court of claims met at the cour louse in Hardinsburg on Monday of last week, and continued in session until Friday evening. Below we give a pretty complete report of the business transacted during the term.

FIRST DAY. The court was called to order by N McC. Mercer, presiding judge, and the fol lowing magistrates were present: G. A. Leichardt and Willis G. Payne, Hardinsburg district; Thos. W. Dyer and Jas. E. Chapin, Cloverport district; Geo. R. Bruner and W. R. Brashear, Union Star district; Riley Dowell and Thos. Adkisson, Bewleyville district; Geo. Harned and Geo P. Nottingham, Hudsonville district;

Francis Rhodes and Henry R. Dean, Rough Creek district. Mr. B. F. Beard, commissioner and receiver, and Dr. A. M. Kincheloe, commis sioner of the poor house, made their annual reports, which were referred to appropriate committees for examination. The court then adjourned and visited the poor farm in a body, to investigate its condition, which occupied the remainder of the Late in the afternoon the board of magistrates returned from their visit to the poor farm and house, and reported that in-stitution in good condition, the house well kept and comfortable, the inmates hu manely cared for, and in clean, healthy condition. It is quite likely, judging from the tone of conversation among the magistrates, that all the paupers of the county will be awarded to the poor house, no ap-propriatious granted for the keep of those outside that institution, and the capacity of the building enlarged to meet all de mands upon its hospitality.

SECOND DAY. The court met promptly at 8:50 o'clock

Wheneas, The county has gone to great expense to build and repair a good and comfortable home for the poor of the county, therefore we move the court that all the paupers must avail themselves of the opportunity or look to their friends for relief. And it is further moved that as more accommodations at the poor of that as more accommodations at the poor ed that as more accommodations at the poor house becomes necessary, the commissioner sha'l be authorized to build and provide such accommodations as it may require to accommodate the poor brought to the poor bouse.

After considerable discussion, Magis-trate W. R. Brashear submitted the following amondment

Except where the poor house commissioner will think it best for the county in extreme, bed-ridden and helpless cases where removal would endanger the lives or increase the affictions of the paupors, in which cases he is aucared for outside the poor house, at a rate not exceeding the poor house rate, all of which he will report to this court.

The motion, as amended, was then adopted.

M's. Elmore presented her claims for county charity, which were referred to the poor bouse commissioner.

It was ordered that the delinquent list be re-listed for the back tax collector.

The back tax collector's report showed $57 40 collected from white persons, and $44 10 from colored persons, while the re-ceipts taken up amounted to $46 15.

THIRD DAY. The court met promptly at 8:30 a.m., all the magistrates being present. The record of the proceedings of the preceding day were read and approved.

The committee appointed to examine the delinquent list reported it correct, and recommended that quite a number of worthless names on the list be stricken off and not listed with the back tax collector. There are 954 tythes on the list, amounting to $1.962, and $6.22 property tax.

It was ordered that the bridge commissioner visit and ascertain, and report at the January term, 1884, whether the right of way can be secured for a bridge across Clover Creek on the Owensboro road.

A petition was signed by the county jadge, county attorney, and all the magis trates of the county, praying the legisla-ture to repeal the act by which the civil code makes it the duty of the officers to return all process issued from the quarterly court to that court, thus taking away the right of the defendant to have same re turned before the justice of the peace of the district in which he resides.

It was ordered that the county levy be the same as last year—$3 poll tax and ten cents on the $100 worth of property.

Peyton Scott, Wm. Watkins and C. M. McGlothlan were appointed county super-visors, and ordered to meet at Hardins-burg on the first Monday in May next.

The action of the court in its seco day's proceedings cutting down the claim of Mrs. Smith, boarding-house keeper of Cloverport, from $50 to $25 was, on mo tion of Magistrate Leitehardt, reconsidered and her full claim allowed. [This claim was for fifty days nursing and care of Jack Phelps, pauper, who was sick of dropsy at her house for that length of time.]

Dan Smith was allowed $7.55, the amount advanced by him to Wm. Coomes, a blind man 81 years old, and an own cousin to the late President Abraham Lincoln. Coomes' wife is paralyzed, and they were both adjudged objects of charity, and their cases referred to the poor house com-

Dr. J. B. Frymire presented a claim amounting to $140 for medical services rendered Ben Dooley. Magistrate Brashear moved that he be allowed $25, which was voted down on general principles.

tern in the court house yard for drinking water. It was also ordered that the same committee have the fence around the yard repaired and cause blinds, or lattice work in alternate openings, put upon the cupola of the court-house. It was ordered that Mr. B. F. Beard, the county commissioner and receiver, be and he is hereby authorized and directed to make arrangements to procure and obtain sufficient funds (and if necessary to borrow and bind the county therefor) as shall be required to meet any obligation created by contract by and with the several commissioners appointed by this court at 1 sterm to have carrier work down at 1 sterm to have carrier work down at 1 sterm to have carrier work down to the several severa term to have certain work done and it provements made, when the necessity therefor exists by reason of lack of tands in his hands belonging to the county.

Judge Mercer was opposed to the movement on general principles. He was opposed to any movement that would curtail our good old county. He was not alarmed but thought the thing may be abandoned, but was willing to fight it should it come up in the legislature.

Magistrate Brashear thought it advisable to get up the remonstrances right away, and lay them before the legislature at an early day He therefore moved that the judge appoint a committee to draft suita-ble res lutions expressive of the opinion of the court and citizens of Breckenridge

They accuse Hon. Lafe Green of wanting to set up a little kingdom of his own. There is a strong sentiment throughout the county in favor of a good road tax.

Bob Robertson is a strong new county wan. They propose to make him judge. Magistrate Brashear, of the Union Star district, is the youngest justice in the county.

Mr. James Lyons, living near town is

"Look before you leap," says an old proverb, and it is a good one, too; and people who bear this in mind will not be and to get themselves in trouble. Look before you marry! This is also good advice to the young folks who are contemplating matrimony as it is a serious matter and should have due deliberation. Look before you sign your name as an endorser-perhaps some of the readers of this chapter have learned from experience the force of this advice. Look before you buy a kouse, or a lot, or a horse Look before you are induced to buy this Eastern-made clothing, brought on by dealers who have more regard for the profit they make than for the interest of their customers, and who, by using all manner of advertising devices to praise their goods to the skies mislead the public, and sometimes induce them to give up their hard earned money for worthless trash. Look before you buy, and be sure to look for that old "Old Reliable" and thoroughly "Home-made" establishment of J. Winter & Co., corner Third and Market streets, where you will always be fairly and squarely dealt with, and where you will find an immense stock of Men's, Boys' and Children's clothing of their own manufacture: well cut, well trimmed, well made, and WELL SHRUNK BEFORE CUTTING and where you pay even less for first-class goods than you are requested to give up for this ex avagantly puffed up stuff, made by Eastern wholesale houses without regard to any particular section or class of trade. J. WINTER & CO., on the contrary, manu facture all their clothing especially for their own trade, which a business experience of many years has taught them to do successfully, and by which they hold old customers and constantly make new ones. "Look before you leap" into these clothing traps, so alluringly baited; steer clear of them; give them a wide berth; don't touch them with a hundred foot pole! Always bear in mind-nobody can afford to sell his goods for less than they are worth; nobody is going to give you a gold dollar for seventy five cents! It is not reasonable. The explanation given by some that the reason they could sell FOR LESS THAN COST was because THEY SOLD SO MANY, will do to smile at. and is just as reasonable as some of the clothing advertisements to be found in the daily papers. J. WINTER & CO. always give you full value for your money, and, if after you have taken the goods home and they don't suit, bring them back and exchange them. and if you can't be suited your money will be cheerfully and promptly refunded. We close this chapter as we begun it-LOOK BEFORE YOU LEAP! This is the

the county at least $1,000. Mr. J. H. Moorman bought the Wm. C. Muffitt farm, at commissioner's sale, con taining 179 acres, for $1,225.

Several members threatened to resign and go home during the squabble between the judge and the county attorney. It is said that Senator Green got up the new county movement, and wants the county seat at the Falls of Rough. Miss Sarah M. Hudson, of the Cloverport district, was tried before Judge Mercer on a lunacy writ and declared lasane.

"I am not mad-no, not mad, gentlemen of the court—but the law must and shall be expounded."—[County Attorney Barnes. H. W. Herndon, constable of the Bewleyville district, resigned the position, and F. W. Peyton was appointed to the vacancy.

Custer district voted a large majority against the road tax, but still she wants large appropriations from the county court for public roads in her section. Judge Board failed, from some cause, to sign any of the road orders while he was county judge, and the consequence is that the county is without road oversect. The county court decided to discontinue the old Hardinsburg and Falls of Rough road from Jesse L. Owens gate to the Davisson Ferry road, and Messrs. John A. and D. C. Moorman and G. W. Mathews were as pointed viewers. Mr. B. F. Beard bought the following crops of tobacco Monday of last week: Wm. and John Miller's, 15 000 lbs., at $13 round for Burley and $10 and $3 for Pryor; Chas. Miller's, and his tenant's Jerome Beavin, 18 00 lbs., at $13 round for Burley and $10 and $7.50 for Pryor; James Harper's, 14,000 lbs., at $10,86 $8 and $5. John Rhodes', 8,000 lbs. at $10 and $3 These are the choice crops of the county.
